DIRECTION WITH DIGNITY ...from the inside out

(formerly presented as Discipline Without Damage)

Here's the great part about DWD

It's all done with positive methods. No coaxing, bribing, counting, scolding, shouting, swatting, swearing or threatening!
The Key? LowStress Child Management!

THE PAYOFF

A strong, positive inner person in your child.

THE OUTCOME

Great relationships with the kids, even during teen years.

THE REASON

You are using positive, nurturing corrections that build - rather than undermine - respect and friendship!

Learn new ways to...

- Put kids to bed easily.
- Get kids up and dressed without hassle.
- Help kids wear seat belts voluntarily!
- Quiet fussing and fighting in the car.
- Arrest the whining habit.
- Quiet temper tantrums safely.
- Turn stubbornness into willingness.
- Reduce bath time resistance to zero.
- Use the "me first" or "I had it first" syndrome as great building blocks for courtesy.
- Turn rudeness into gentleness.
- Encourage individuality and assertiveness in the compliant child.

What people are saying about DWD

- "...the best investment we have ever made in our family!"
- "Things are so quiet & orderly now. I can hardly believe it's the same household."
- "After just one week, my stress has so decreased that the seminar has already paid for itself."
- "This seminar helps us train our children to be genuine and caring, working from the inside out."
- "In an ideal world, this course would be a requirement for everyone who works with children."
